

IFEAD is an independent research and information exchange organization working on the future state of Enterprise Architecture.

Overview of Enterprise / B&I / T&I Architect Profiles

By Jaap Schekkerman

(Sr.) Enterprise Architect profile

Core competences: Knowledge & Experience

- Enterprise Architect
 - General business knowledge (strategy, management and organization); (*)
 - Understanding/insight in strategic alignment of business, ICT and transformation; (*)
 - Understanding/insight in organization design and enterprise governance processes; (*)
 - Understanding/insight in the relation between business philosophy, external context and enterprise architecture; (*)
 - Understanding/insight in organizations and business processes; (*)
 - Understanding/insight in the relation between information provision and organization; (*)
 - Understanding the cost / benefit impact of enterprise architecture solutions; (*)
 - Knowledge & Experience in using Enterprise Architecture Frameworks at Enterprise Architecture level; (*)
 - Broad overview on available technology solutions & standards; (*)
 - Understanding/insight in other enterprise architecture frameworks & methods.
 - Knowledge & Experience in practicing Business & Information Architecture methods;
 - Knowledge & Experience in practicing Information-Systems and Technology Infrastructure architecture methods;
 - Knowledge & Experience in using modeling tools and workbenches;

IFEAD is an independent research and information exchange organization working on the future state of Enterprise Architecture.

- Sufficient knowledge on available system development methods, techniques and tools to be able to judge whether a particular is feasible;
- Knowledge of developing and maintaining information systems;
- Knowledge of specific market sectors;
- Knowledge on applicable reference models within that domain

Core competences: Skills

- Enterprise Architect
 - Managerial skills; (*)
 - Management of expectations; (*)
 - Good sense for relationships and politics; (*)
 - Performing skills;
 - Modeling skills;
 - Organization Designing skills;
 - Technical Designing skills;
 - Advising skills;
 - Negotiating skills;
 - Insight/Knowledge of
 - Technical infrastructure ideas
 - Information Systems and Information Management ideas
 - Organization development ideas
 - Holistic thinking cq System thinking ideas
 - Change management ideas
- Communicative skills; (*)
 - Verbal:
 - Interviewing all stakeholders
 - Presenting to all stakeholders
 - Facilitating; meetings, workshops
 - Constructive communication with fellow-team members
 - Written:
 - Reporting
 - Visualizing:
 - Transformation Roadmaps
 - Schemes
- Teamwork:
 - Give and take criticism
 - Ability to change own behavior to adapt to other people
 - Work together for a mutual result
 - Ability to work in a pragmatic way
 - Motivate others
- Social skills.

(*) = Most important / significant core competencies for Sr./ Lead Enterprise Architects

IFEAD is an independent research and information exchange organization working on the future state of Enterprise Architecture.

(Sr.) Business & Information (B&I) Solution Architect profile

Core competences: Knowledge & Experience

➤ Solution Architect B&I

- General business knowledge (strategy, management and organization); (*)
- Understanding/Insight in translating strategic principles into an architecture; (*)
- Understanding/insight in organizations and business processes;
- Understanding/insight in the relation between information provision and organization;
- Knowledge & Experience in using Enterprise Architecture Frameworks at Solution Architecture level; (*)
- Knowledge & Experience in practicing Business & Information Architecture methods;
- Knowledge & Experience in using business modeling tools and workbenches;
- Sufficient knowledge on available business development methods, techniques and tools to be able to judge whether a particular is feasible;
- Knowledge of specific market sectors;
- Knowledge on applicable reference models within that domain

Core competences: Skills

➤ Solution Architect(B&I)

- Managerial skills; (*)
- Management of client expectations; (*)
- Good sense for relationships and politics;
- Performing skills;
- Modelling skills;
- Organisation Designing skills;
- Advising skills;
- Negotiating skills;
- Communicative skills; (*)
 - Verbal:
 - Interviewing all stakeholders
 - Presenting to all stakeholders
 - Facilitating; meetings, workshops
 - Constructive communication with fellow-team members
 - Written:
 - Reporting
 - Visualizing:
 - Transformation Roadmaps
 - Schemes
- Teamwork:
 - Give and take criticism
 - Ability to change own behaviour to adapt to other people
 - Work together for a mutual result
 - Ability to work in a pragmatic way
 - Motivate others
- Social skills

(*) = Most important / significant core competencies for Sr.

IFEAD is an independent research and information exchange organization working on the future state of Enterprise Architecture.

(Sr.) Information-Systems & Technology Infrastructure (IS&TI) Solution Architect profile

Core competences: Knowledge & Experience

- Solution Architect (IS&TI)
 - General IT knowledge (IT strategy, IT management and organization); (*)
 - Understanding/Insight in translating strategic principles into an IT architecture; (*)
 - Understanding/insight in organizations and IT processes;
 - Understanding/insight in the relation between information provision and organization;
 - Knowledge & Experience in using Enterprise Architecture Frameworks at Solution Architecture level; (*)
 - Knowledge & Experience in practicing Information-Systems and Communication / Technology Infrastructure architecture methods;
 - Broad overview on available technology solutions & standards; (*)
 - Knowledge & Experience in using modelling tools and workbenches;
 - Sufficient knowledge on available system development methods, techniques and tools to be able to judge whether a particular is feasible;
 - Knowledge of developing and maintaining information systems;
 - Knowledge of specific market sectors;
 - Knowledge on applicable reference models within that domain

Core competences: Skills

- Solution Architect (IS&TI)
 - Managerial skills; (*)
 - Management of client expectations; (*)
 - Good sense for relationships and politics;
 - Performing skills;
 - Modelling skills;
 - Technical Designing skills;
 - Advising skills;
 - Negotiating skills;
- Communicative skills; (*)
 - Verbal:
 - Interviewing all stakeholders
 - Presenting to all stakeholders
 - Facilitating; meetings, workshops
 - Constructive communication with fellow-team members
 - Written:
 - Reporting
 - Visualizing:
 - Transformation Roadmaps
 - Schemes
- Teamwork:
 - Give and take criticism
 - Ability to change own behaviour to adapt to other people
 - Work together for a mutual result
 - Ability to work in a pragmatic way
 - Motivate others

Institute For
Enterprise Architecture
Developments

Your - Return On Information © 1996

Institute For Enterprise Architecture Developments
Suikerpeergaarde 4
3824BC, Amersfoort
The Netherlands

IFEAD is an independent research and information exchange organization working on the future state of Enterprise Architecture.

➤ Social skills.

(*) = Most important / significant core competencies for Sr.