Idea Review

- BoD need to review each idea and verify the assigned areas of impact as well as the impact & do-ability. This needs to be done as a group exercise where we can engage individuals and hear their arguments collectively.
 - Note: Some of the ideas are too vague
 - Each idea must be an actionable statement that someone can read and clearly understand what must be done.
 - Note: May want to exclude the building idea
 - The idea of getting a building is probably not an an idea that we can pursue in the foreseeable future given our limited funding capabilities.
 - Note: Do-ability encompasses (cost, time, feasibility)

Managing Expectations

- Need to identify the needs we are going to address by each idea. We can use a simple matrix, but there should be some level of traceability to justify each idea.
- Each idea needs to have some quantifiable measure for us to assess the value so that we can
 - Prioritize it amongst the other ideas
 - Assess the level of success we achieved
- Need to draft a communication that explains to the membership the ideas that we plan on implementing, their justification (expressed in opportunities to address unmet needs as well as impact we hope to achieve)

Establishing priorities for 2009 - 2010

- BoD to agree on clear & measureable goals for the 2009-2010. These are important for setting up the criteria used for evaluating & prioritizing ideas.
- BoD to review the list of “cleansed” ideas to determine the timelines for accomplishing each idea
 - Short Term (just do it – requires little or no authorization)
 - Middle Term (Requires no funding but resources & planning)
 - Long Term (Requires allocation of funds and significant effort)
- BoD to determine which ideas will be pursued this year given cost & resource constraints

Ownership & Accountability

- BoD will each be assigned one or more ideas. Most important ideas (highest priority) will be assigned ownership and staffing first.
- The rest will be relegated to second tier and third tier status based on bandwidth of leadership and availability of resources (human & financial)
- One BoD will be assigned as the single owner for an idea and must provide a plan for completing the idea at next Board meeting.
- Progress & Risks will be managed in subsequent board meetings to ensure ideas are tracking to schedule.

Next Steps

- BoD review the ideas and content captured in this deck
- BoD agree upon the suggested action items throughout
- BoD finalize this deck and solidify an action plan for the organization accompanied by a communication plan to manage expectations of the membership.
