Logo and Branding Use Guidelines

This document is intended to provide guidelines on the CAEAP logos and branding policy.

Basic Principal of Usage: The basic principle of using a CAEAP graphic is to not disturb the colors or proportions of the graphic “groups” within an element, nor should any element be deconstructed or separated.

Logo

The logo is an image (not a font) and cannot be resized or changed with another tool

Size

The size of the logo cannot be disproportional when resized. Also, trademark ® must be maintained proportional to the logo (once we trademark the logo)

Position

The logo must not appear within ½ inch of another logo and must not be positioned too close to the edge for printed materials (provide 3/8 inch of trim)

Trademark

Once the trademark paperwork is completed, the ® must be used with the logo going forward.

Colors

The logo should only be displayed on other materials (including clothing) using the colors provided below or in B&W (also presented below)

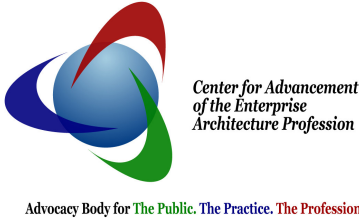

Branding & Messaging:

The logo contains a blue image representing a global presence that CAEAP brings to the vision and practice of the EA profession. The 3-color swooshes represent the 3 areas of focus for the organization (Blue – The Practice, Green – The Public, and Red – The Profession). The 3 focus areas work in harmony to ensure the EA profession brings a balanced vision for delivering value.

Also important are the color and positioning of the swooshes:

- Green swoosh is positioned out in front as that keeps the Public (customer) “front & center”. Green is symbolic of the need to maintain balance with our environment (which is one of the key stakeholders in the Public sector).
- Blue swoosh is positioned to the side and provides EA professionals with direction for the Practice (based on our values & principles) to ensure they deliver consistent value to the Public. Blue is often tied to “royalty” and connotes a “code of conduct” followed by those in a higher level in society. This aligns well with CAEAP’s direction to elevate the EA practice to a professional level. Blue also brings positive meaning in almost every culture
- Red swoosh is positioned on top as the governance over the Profession will provide oversight over the practice to ensure it meets the needs for the Public. Red is common color with control and authority.
